OCPL announces new Youth Services Librarian

The Oconee County Public Library is proud to announce the hiring of a new librarian for Youth Services, Darcy Arnall. Darcy comes to the OCPL from Blue Ridge, Georgia. Darcy has a bachelor's degree in history from Thomas Edison State University, and her Master's in Library and Information Science with a School Media Specialist Certification from Valdosta State University. She has worked in public libraries for six and a half years, and prior to moving to Oconee County, she managed children's services at the Fannin County Public Library in Georgia. Darcy's first day with the OCPL was Monday, October 21. For more information about children's and youth services, and all OCPL programs, check out our website at oconeelibrary.org.
