Not shaving for No Shave November? Donate those supplies at your library!

We mustache you to help! While No-Shave November is typically used to continue to draw awareness around cancer prevention, the Oconee County Public Libraries want to encourage the community to go a step further. During this no-shave November, donate those new shaving and toiletry items you would have typically used to those who might not always be able to afford them. New razors, shaving cream, and other toiletry items can be dropped off at any Oconee Library location November 1 through 30. Supplies collected will be given to veterans and those experiencing homelessness. Together, we can make this collection drive a fan(tache)tic success!
